

Hanen Workshops at a Glance

Hanen offers a variety of intensive two-day and three-day workshops for speech-language pathologists and early childhood education consultants/trainers. Offered all around the world, these experiential, hands-on workshops offer an evidence-based approach and practical resources for involving families and educators to achieve the best possible outcomes for young children.

Certification (entry-level) workshops

It Takes Two to Talk®	More Than Words®	Learning Language and Loving It™
Learn how to facilitate parents' involvement in their child's early language intervention through explicit teaching, coaching and scaffolding so that they can effectively apply the learning to everyday interactions with their child. Eligibility: Speech-language pathologist/therapist	Learn how to involve parents of children with autism to facilitate their child's social and communication skills in everyday contexts, fulfilling the key criteria for effective early intervention for these children. Eligibility: Speech-language pathologist/therapist	Learn how to provide outstanding in-service education that gives child care providers and preschool teachers the skills to facilitate children's social, language and literacy development in early childhood settings. Eligibility: Speech-language pathologist/therapist or early childhood education consultant/trainer

Advanced workshops

Target Word®	TalkAbility™	ABC and Beyond™
Learn how to help parents of children who are Late Talkers use responsive interaction strategies and focused stimulation to facilitate the children's expressive language development. Prerequisite: It Takes Two to Talk Certification Workshop and current Hanen membership	Learn how to help parents of verbal, high-functioning children with autism facilitate extended conversations and foster the development of theory of mind. Prerequisite: More Than Words Certification Workshop and current Hanen membership	Learn to provide intensive professional development to educators of 3-5 year-olds on how to promote emergent literacy development during daily, naturalistic interactions. Prerequisite: Learning Language and Loving It, It Takes Two to Talk OR More Than Words Certification Workshop, as well as current Hanen membership

Learn more at www.hanen.org/discoverhanen

